

I think you should be able to take your phone number with you this is very important for business persons as well as personal use. There is no reason not to develop this technology. It is just a way to keep competition down. Please do what is best for the public not the industry.